Pause

How to press pause before life does it for you

Danielle Marchant

Pause is an important message ready to be heard.

We check our phones an average of 221 times a day, we have apps that help us sleep and remind us to be mindful while we secretly measure our success in 'likes'. Time is our luxury and yet with technology we are never able to leave the office. Pause allows you to finally put yourself, your feelings and your intuition first. Learning to say no, doing the things that make you feel good, and not doing the things that don't make you feel good. Blending mind, heart, body and spirit, this book gives you the space and the practices so that you can learn how to benefit from the power of the pause. It uses nature, creativity and your inner spirit to allow the energy to flow freely once again. There are exercises to ground you, give access to your intuition, to breathe deeply and allow your monkey mind to settle. It gives you time to explore what is big in your life right now, to know deep down what matters. It opens you up, allowing you to freely experience all the pain, the joy and the twists and turns of life. It gives you back your courage, your fire and your connection.

Picturing Prince

An intimate portrait

Steve Parke

MOST OF THE
IMAGES IN THE
BOOK HAVE NEVER
BEFORE.

Featuring a mix of rare and never-seen-before photographs of Prince, alongside written vignettes about working at Paisley Park with the icon, Steve Parke's book is essential for Prince fans.

Picturing Prince sees the late icon's former art director, Steve Parke, revealing stunning intimate photographs of the singer from his time working at Paisley Park. At least half of the images in the book are exclusively published here for the first time; most other images in the book are rare to the public eye.

Alongside these remarkable photos are fifty engaging, poignant and often funny written vignettes by Parke, which reveal the very human man behind the reclusive superstar: from shooting hoops to renting out movie theatres at 4am; from midnight requests for camels to meaningful conversations that shed light on Prince as man and artist.

Steve Parke was Paisley Park's official art director. He began photographing Prince at the request of the star – the images in this book are the arresting result of this collaboration.

The Midlife Kitchen

Health-boosting recipes for midlife & beyond

Mimi Spencer & Sam Rice

FROM THE
CO-AUTHOR OF
INTERNATIONAL
BESTSELLER
THE FAST DIET -
1.54 MILLION
COPIES SOLD WORLDWIDE
AND TRANSLATED INTO MORE THAN 30 LANGUAGES

Future-proof your life through your forties, fifties and beyond with these delicious, fuss-free recipes that restore, rejuvenate and revive.

In this life-changing cookbook, Mimi Spencer and Sam Rice assert that Midlife is not a time to be concerned with food fads and foibles, but rather a glorious opportunity to wrest back control of your eating in the interests of health, happiness and a long life. Taste must certainly come first, but with health firmly snapping at its heels, underpinned by well-established nutritional common sense. Busy lives require simple, sustaining recipes that incorporate wholesome, health-giving ingredients without too much fanfare or fuss.

Alongside each of the 165 recipes is the Midlife Kitchen emblem, the star anise. With each of the eight seeds representing a specific Midlife Health category – such as Hormone Harmony; Mind, Memory & Mood; or Heart Health – authors Sam and Mimi are able to provide simple nutritional information. Health tips explain the benefits of certain ingredients, while ‘Why We Love It’ sections explore the advantages of cooking each dish. Midlife Must-Haves show how to create homemade essentials such as Midlife Grown-up Granola, Midlife Power Porridge and Midlife Sweetener.

Mimi Spencer

is best known for co-authoring the 2012 bestseller The Fast Diet with Dr Michael Mosley, which introduced the concept of 5:2 intermittent dieting to the world. Her background is in lifestyle journalism, with an early career spent as a fashion writer for Vogue.

Sam Rice's

career has taken her from management consultant and travel business owner to sommelier, wine columnist and food writer. After the premature death of her brother, who suffered from type 1 diabetes, she decided to overhaul her diet, a process she wrote about in The Happy Eater, 4 Weeks to a Better Relationship with Food.

The Little Book of Tidying
Beth Penn

A beautifully colour-illustrated pocket guide to decluttering your home and life by using specific tools and strategies. In this age of mass consumerism, we are ‘stuffocating’ – becoming slaves to our possessions. Discarding the unnecessary brings clarity, allows us to appreciate our favourite things and helps us to regain control of our surroundings and, as a consequence, our lives. Grounded in solid science and bursting with invaluable tools, activities and strategies, this little book presents a wonderful approach to the philosophy of ‘less is more’, allowing the reader to adopt a new form of positive psychology into their daily lives.

The Low-FODMAP Recipe Book
Lucy Whigham

FODMAP – an acronym for fermentable oligosaccharides, disaccharides, monosaccharides and polyols – is the current buzz word in the world of gut health and gastrointestinal distress. The low-FODMAP way can relieve even the most severe digestive discomfort. However, unlike most diets, this is not a fad. Rigorous clinical trials have proved the diet’s effectiveness in treating symptoms of gut distress, and the scientific community, along with the general public, is excited about it and its role in treating functional gastrointestinal problems. This book demystifies the low-FODMAP diet and provides 125 tasty and delicious recipes for a happy gut.

The Photographer's Eye Remastered 10th Anniversary

Michael Freeman

Design is the single most important factor in creating a successful photograph. The ability to see the potential for a strong picture and then organize the graphic elements into an effective, compelling composition has always been one of the key skills in making photographs. The Photographers Eye shows how anyone can develop an eye for seeing great digital photos by exploring the traditional approaches to composition and design, but also addresses the technique of shooting in the knowledge that a picture will later be edited, manipulated, or montaged.

With a refreshed look to celebrate its tenth anniversary, Michael Freeman's iconic bestseller, The Photographer's Eye, has never looked better.

The Vegan Kitchen

The Australian Women's Weekly

'Veganuary' became the hashtag to use at the beginning of the year and record numbers are set to stick to the plant-based diet all year round. Many more 'part-time vegans' are seeking out new recipes to broaden their food choices, improve their health and lessen the environmental impact of the food that they eat.

This new cookbook offers long-time vegans and those just starting out, fresh recipe ideas using new alternative ingredients readily available in most supermarkets. There are also recipes for making your own yoghurt, cheese, mayonnaise and ice-cream – all free of animal products and packed with goodness.

Simply Sugar Free

Susanna Booth

In Britain, the average person consumes 700 grams of sugar each week. Eating too much sugar can be as harmful to your health as drinking alcohol or smoking, as it can lead to an increased risk of diabetes, heart disease, weight gain and tooth decay, amongst other health problems. With more than 100 recipes, Simply Sugar Free offers sweet and simple dishes using alternatives to refined sugar. From Roquefort & pear muffins, Strawberry scones and Banana bread to Chocolate chip ice cream, Pineapple meringue pie and Red velvet cake, each recipe uses a sweet alternative to refined sugar – without compromising on taste.

Kaukasis: The Cookbook

A culinary journey through Georgia, Azerbaijan & beyond

Olia Hercules

OLIA WAS THE 2015
OBSERVER RISING
STAR IN FOOD AND MAMUSHKA WON
FORTNUM & MASON
DEBUT FOOD BOOK
AWARD 2016

The long-anticipated follow-up to the award-winning debut.

From the winner of the Observer's Rising Star Award and Fortnum & Mason Debut Food Book Award 2016 comes a celebration of the food and flavours of the Caucasus – the region bridging Europe and Asia, and incorporating Georgia, Azerbaijan, Armenia, Iran, Russia and Turkey. Olia Hercules introduces us to new recipes for vibrant, earthy, unexpected dishes from across the region such as Plum fruit leather, Plov with pumpkin, chestnut & walnut crust, Quince stuffed with lamb & carmalised shallots, Vine leaf dolma, Village breakfast, Khachapouri, Armenian “cognac” profiteroles and Purple basil sherbet.

Praise for Kaukasis...

‘A sensitive, personal journey through the beauty of food – just wonderful’ – Jamie Oliver

‘Olia Hercules is a storyteller-foodwriter, and a wholly original voice in the kitchen – there's not a recipe of hers I don't want to cook immediately’

– Nigella Lawson

‘This is an incredible book – as I began to leaf through I started to smile, and I didn't stop’ – Diana Henry was born in Ukraine and lived in Cyprus for 5 years before moving to London to study a BA in Italian language, followed by an MA in Russian and English. A number of jobs followed before her interest in food as an amateur reached its apogee and she decided to retrain as a chef at Leith's School of Food and Wine. She kicked off her culinary career working at London's Union Market before landing her dream job as a chef-de partie for Ottolenghi's. Olia's focus nowadays is mostly on her son, her writing, her food styling and the occasional foray into film and TV.

Olia Hercules

Explore exciting new recipes from the streets of India's four biggest cities.

Chetna Makan has travelled to the four corners of India - Mumbai, Kolkata, Delhi and Chennai - sampling the wide varieties of street food on offer. Each area has subtle differences in ingredients and techniques, making the local cuisine completely unique and full of character.

In Chai, Chaat & Chutney, Chetna has taken inspiration from the street and created delicious recipes that are simple to cook at home. The result is a completely fresh take on Indian cuisine - try Tamarind stuffed chillis, Chana dal vada with coconut chutney and Sticky bombay chicken from the South or let your senses venture to the North for Chole, one of the ultimate curries, sweet Carrot halwa, Pani puri and Cardamom & pistachio kulfi.

Praise for The Cardamom Trail...

'It's an engrossing - and beautifully produced - book, with the former Mumbai fashion designer's creative input very much evident.' - The Irish Times Magazine

'It will make you desperate to become a better baker' - Evening Standard Online

Chetna Makan

was born in Jabalpur, an ancient city in central India. She has a degree in fashion and worked in Mumbai as a fashion designer before moving to the UK in 2003. Chetna reached the semi-final of The Great British Bake Off in 2014, and her first book The Cardamom Trail is a celebration of baking with Indian flavours. She has a very popular YouTube channel 'Food with Chetna' where she shares her creative flair for food.

Claridge's: The Cookbook

Martyn Nail & Meredith Erickson

"...NOT THAT I
INTEND TO DIE, BUT
WHEN I DO, I DON'T WANT TO GO TO HEAVEN, I WANT TO GO TO CLARIDGE'S"
- SPENCER TRACY

The debut cookbook from London's legendary luxury hotel.

An art deco jewel set in the heart of London's Mayfair, Claridge's – one of the world's best luxury hotels – has long been known for inspiring menus and exceptional dining from breakfasts and elevenses, through lunch and afternoon tea, and on to drinks, dinner and the dessert cart. Claridge's: The Cookbook celebrates that heritage in style, with a collection of over 100 of the best-loved dishes and drinks from The Foyer and Reading Room, the Bar and The Fumoir. With interludes ranging from the magic of Christmas to how to host dinner for 100, the extraordinary experience of dining at Claridge's is brought to life in book form. The book will include delectable dishes and drinks for every time of day: from the Arnold Bennett omelette, to the Lobster, langoustine & crab cocktail and the Smoked duck salad. Treats include Cheddar Eccles cakes and a Raspberry marshmallow. Savour everything from the prized Claridge's chicken pie to a slice of Venison Wellington, with some Truffled macaroni gratin or Pommes château. Share the essence of Claridge's with family and friends, in the comfort of your own home – and enjoy!

The women behind the Roux empire celebrate French home cooking as it is today: fresh, elegant and deliciously simple.

'From traditional family feasts to delightful simple snacks, this is a book to make meal times special'
– Michel Roux Jr

Simple family food forms the heart of French gastronomy. In New French Table, mother-and-daughter team Emily and Giselle Roux share a completely fresh take on classic and contemporary recipes, creating a modern bible for today's lifestyle.

Drawing upon their experience working in Roux restaurants and fond memories of cooking together, they prove that French food is not only easy and approachable, but light, fresh and bursting with flavour. From the provincial home cooking of the Ardeche to the sweet treats of Brittany, this unique collection of recipes shows how the French kitchen has evolved to suit a modern lifestyle – with delicious recipes for every day; family dinners; lighter soups and salads; new trends; international influences; and big feasts to feed a crowd.

Giselle Roux was born in the Ardèche. She has worked in the restaurant business for many years and now works alongside her husband, Michel Roux Jr, as the secretary at Le Gavroche restaurant in London.

Emily Roux is the daughter of Michel and Giselle Roux. She trained as a chef at the Institut Paul Bocuse in Lyon before moving to Paris to work at the Michelin-starred restaurant Akrame. She is now back in London, where she is working as a consultant in the food industry. She also has a monthly column in Decanter magazine.

Bring the delicious flavours of the bakery into your own kitchen with this new book from celebrated chef and restaurateur, Claus Meyer.

Claus Meyer has been taking the world by storm with his fresh, Nordic cooking. Now, he turns his hands to all things baking. His bakeries in Grand Central Station and Brooklyn, Meyers Bageri, have been receiving stellar reviews. In this book, Claus shares the secrets to his success.

The book is structured around the four basic types of dough – wheat, wholemeal, rye and sweet. Photographic step-by-step instructions explain each baking technique, while troubleshooting sections provide advice. Alongside techniques, Claus gives tips and tricks for achieving best results, with explanations of the best flour and equipment to use. Recipes then show you how to put your new-found skills to use, ranging from rye bread to cinnamon loaf, from spelt bread to scones. This is the perfect guide to creating delicious breads and pastries at home.

Claus Meyer

has been a gastronomic entrepreneur for more than 30 years, and has inspired a generation to discover local Nordic produce through his portfolio of businesses, cookbooks, TV shows, lectures and agenda-setting viewpoints. He co-founded the celebrated restaurant noma, in Copenhagen, in 2003 and also founded restaurant GUSTU, in La Paz (Bolivia). In 2016 he opened a large-scale food space within the Grand Central Terminal in New York City, the Great Northern Food Hall, and a 100-seat restaurant, Agern, as well as a bakery in Williamsburg.

Secrets From My Indian Family Kitchen

Classic dishes for a new generation

Anjali Pathak

PATAK'S IS A
GLOBAL BRAND,
BRINGING INDIAN
CUISINE TO OVER 40
COUNTRIES AROUND
THE WORLD

A collection of Indian and spice-inspired recipes to cook at home from chef and food writer Anjali Pathak – the next generation of the highly-successful Patak's Indian food brand.

Anjali Pathak's first memories are of making chapatis with her grandmother who founded the family business, doing her homework on the kitchen table as her mother presented her with dish upon dish to test and her father's favourite phrase – 'Can we get that into a jar?'

Now Anjali draws upon her family secrets in a beautiful collection of authentic Indian dishes and modern creations that are perfect for all cooks. Delve into heartfelt stories that bring Indian food to life, learn top tips for foolproof results, master classics and learn how a touch of spice can add a contemporary twist.

The recipes included vary from light snacks, such as the Bombay nuts and Stuffed paneer bites, to bigger bites like Chilli beef with black pepper and Roasted vegetable biryani. As for dessert, who could resist the Baby apple tarte tatin with spiced caramel or the Decadent chocolate truffles?

Anjali Pathak

is an exciting talent in the Indian food and spice arena. Having learnt the basics of Indian cookery from a young age, Anjali has stepped out of her heritage and works with spice and flavours from across the globe. She loves sharing recipes that are easy to follow for people that love to eat as well as love to cook. A respected chef, food writer and cookery teacher with qualifications from the prestigious Leiths School of Food & Wine, Wine Spirit & Education Trust and a diploma in Diet & Nutrition, Anjali continues to go from strength to strength, regularly appearing in international media and television across the world. Her cookery masterclasses are always a sell out and you can find more information on Anjali on her popular website www.anjalipathak.com.

Aperitivo

Drinks and snacks for the dolce vita

Kay Plunkett-Hogge

MAKE MINE
 A MARTINI:
 THE FINANCIAL
 TIMES' DRINKS
 BOOK
 OF THE YEAR
 2014

Previously from Kay Plunkett-Hogge...

Acclaimed drinks writer Kay Plunkett-Hogge returns with this gorgeous guide to Italy's best dishes and drinks for the aperitif hour.

Let's be honest: who doesn't want to be a little bit Italian? To glide through Rome on a Vespa like Marcello Mastroianni, wearing an impeccable suit? Or sit in a square in Venice at dusk, nibbling cicchetti and sipping an Aperol spritz? This is la dolce vita, and this is aperitivo – Italy's take on drinks and snacks.

Aperitivo contains 80 recipes from across Italy, and tells the stories behind the food and drinks that shape the aperitif hour. The book opens with the aperitivi themselves – Campari and Aperol – as well as recipes for classic Italian cocktails and a guide to Italian wine. Kay then introduces simple recipes for Antipasto & Pinzimonio; Tramezzini; Bruschette & Crostini; Seafood; Meat & Fowl; Vegetables, Dairy & Eggs; Bread & Baking; and Dolci. So let's cinch in our waists, pop on some cat's eye sunglasses, and make like Sophia Loren. It's time for Aperitivo.

Kay Plunkett-Hogge

is a food and drink writer with a wide culinary repertoire and an in-depth knowledge of the drinks industry. Kay started her food career with a location catering service for the fashion business, having been a model agent in New York and London, and a movie coordinator in Bangkok and Los Angeles during the 80s and 90s. Since then, she has worked as a writer and food consultant, most notably with the team behind the successful LEON restaurants – she is co-author of LEON: Family & Friends. Kay has written for FT Weekend, Olive and delicious, and writes a regular cocktail column for the Daily Telegraph.

Fever-Tree – The Art of Mixing

Simple long drinks & cocktails from the world's leading bars

More than 100 great botanical cocktails from the leading mixer brand Fever-Tree, created and mixed by bartenders from all over the world.

The first cocktail title to put the mixers centre-stage. Rather than starting with the spirits, this book focuses on key mixers – including tonic, lemonade, ginger ale, ginger beer and cola – and provides 100 classic and contemporary cocktail recipes that make the most of the botanical partnerships.

The book also explores the origins of key ingredients, including quinine, lemons and elderflower, revealing the role quinine has played in geo-politics, for example, and the impact different herbs have on taste. In the same way that we increasingly want to know the source and production methods of the food we eat, so this guide allows you to understand more fully what we drink – and use that knowledge to create the most delicious cocktails.

'If three-quarters of your G&T is the tonic, make sure you use the best.' – Tim Warrillow

'The best tonic on the planet' – Ashton Kutcher

'The Ultimate G&T' – Jamie Oliver

'Fever-Tree is an outstanding mixer' – Ferran Adria

Fever-Tree was founded in 2005 by Charles Rolls and Tim Warrillow. The business was founded on a simple premise: to restore taste to mixers by using the highest quality natural ingredients. The first bottle of Fever-Tree Indian Tonic Water was produced in 2005, and the mixers are now exported to more than 50 countries. The brand has won numerous awards in the UK, US, Europe and Australia, including six Taste awards, the Queen's Award for Excellence, several Grocer Gold Awards and Best New Product at Tales of the Cocktail.

FORTNUM & MASON DRINKS BOOK OF THE YEAR 2015

The Way of Whisky

A journey around Japanese whisky

Dave Broom

Photographer: Kohei Take

Previously from Dave Broom...

FROM THE AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR BEHIND THE WORLD ATLAS OF WHISKY

An in-depth, personal journey around Japan's whisky distilleries, telling their story and unveiling the philosophy that lies behind this fascinating whisky culture.

Since 2002 (the year it appeared on export markets) Japanese whisky has been consistently winning major international spirits awards. As export production increases and export markets – the USA and France in particular – open up to embrace the quality of these fine malt whiskies, all eyes are on Japan.

Award-winning author and internationally recognized whisky expert Dave Broom has visited Japan 25 times in the past 12 years, studying and learning about its whiskies. In this major new book he shares his personal journey around Japan's whisky distilleries and the unique whisky culture of the country.

Each chapter details the history of the distillery in question, its production and current whiskies (with tasting notes). Dave considers along the way why Japanese whisky is different, questions of tradition vs innovation, and how whisky links with many aspects of Japanese culture. Breathtaking photography from Kohei Take leads the reader deeper into the philosophy behind the drink, making this a must-have edition for any whisky lover, whisky drinker, whisky collector or Japanophile.

'Knowledge, integrity, and passion: these are three words that best describe Dave Broom. It shows in every word he writes.' – John Hansell, Whisky Advocate Magazine is an internationally acclaimed drinks writer, and is regarded as one of the world's foremost writers on Japanese whisky. He has written ten books, including The World Atlas of Whisky, now in its second edition. He has won many awards, including two Glenfiddich prizes and he won the prestigious IWSC Communicator of the Year Award in 2013. In 2016 he was awarded the Tales of the Golden Spirit Award.

Dave Broom

BrewDog: Craft Beer for the People

Richard Taylor, with James Watt & Martin Dickie

An intro to BrewDog and the world of craft beer, from one of the most iconic new beer brands.

BrewDog is one of the world's fastest-growing food and drink brands. Well known for their crowd-funded, rapid expansion and iconoclastic approach, the company now has a wide range of award-winning craft beers (67 to date) that are stocked by every major retailer, 55 BrewDog-branded bars around the world and is just opening a major brewery in Ohio. Their first beer book will focus on explaining craft beer to the widest possible audience.

It includes a survey of what makes craft beer great, how to understand different beer styles, how to cook with beer and match beers and food, right through to how to brew your own. It's both a window into the BrewDog world and a repository of essential information.

Designed in the highly individual style of the brand, the book includes quirky features such as spaces to place your drop of beer once you've ticked a particular beer off your 'to-drink' list and a DIY beer mat.

BrewDog kick-started the craft beer revolution in 2007, when James Watt and Martin Dickie founded the company. Since then it has grown from two men and a dog into a company that employs more than 600 people across four continents. They have an international reputation for beer quality, exporting to 55 countries around the world and have built an ever-growing network of 55 BrewDog bars.

Coffee Art

Creative coffee designs for the home barista

Dhan Tamang

Learn how to make incredible coffee-top designs from one of the world's leading latte artists.

Starting with basic skills and patterns, readers will learn how to create the crema (the froth that acts as a canvas in the coffee cup) and how to produce the hearts, rosettas and tulips, which will be used as the basis to form more complicated artworks. There are over 60 designs to try, including The Swan, The Unicorn, and frothy 3-D babyccino animals, and the book even includes 9 stencil patterns for you to try.

Dhan Tamang is a world-renowned latte artist particularly known for his use of colour, and now you too can create impressive multicoloured designs following Dhan's step-by-step instructions.

By the end of this book you will be able to free pour, etch, stencil and sculpt stunning images, which will delight family members and dinner party guests alike.

The Turmeric Cookbook

Ancient healer, modern medicine

Discover the health benefits and uses of turmeric, with 50 delicious recipes.

Turmeric has been harvested for over 5,000 years in its native Indonesia and is a key ingredient in many dishes and medicinal remedies throughout the region. It is now rising quickly in popularity everywhere in the world as wellness seekers of all ages discover the health properties of this incredible food.

Considered to be one of nature's most powerful anti-inflammatory ingredients, scientific studies now show that turmeric contains anti-cancer properties, may be helpful with IBS, Crohn's, rheumatoid arthritis, help with improved liver function, heart health, may help to lower cholesterol and be protective against Alzheimer's disease.

Turmeric becomes more active either when cooked or combined with other specific ingredients such as ginger. Whether in root or powder form, turmeric can be used in juices, infusions, soups, curries, adding to hummus, yoghurt and marinades. All the health benefits, how to use turmeric and 50 delicious recipes are included in this stunning cookbook.

The Balance Plan

Six steps to optimize your hormonal health

Angelique Panagos

6 SIMPLE STEPS
28-DAY PROGRAMME
70 RECIPES

Balance your hormones and transform your life.

'The wellness world's new holy grail is hormone harmony' – ESMagazine

*'I can't function without coffee'
'I need my daily fix of chocolate'
'I look puffy and retain fluid easily'
'I'm hungrier than I used to be but never feel satisfied'
'I struggle to lose weight no matter what I try'*

Sound familiar?

These are complaints that nutritionist Angelique Panagos hears every day. Time and time again, they're caused by the same thing – hormonal imbalance. The Balance Plan explains how to tune in to your hormones and make the changes necessary to bring them into balance. Take the six steps, follow the 28-day plan and transform your life!

- Sleep better
- Enhance digestion
- Reduce stress
- Elevate energy levels
- Feel happier
- Lose weight

Angelique Panagos

is a writer, foodie and health crusader with a passion for the healing power of food. Her journey into nutrition and hormonal health has been one of self-sabotage, healing and discovery. At age 27, she began taking steps to change her beliefs around food, and to teach herself about nutrition and hormonal balance. Now a nutritional therapist with her own successful West End practice, Angelique features in ITV's Sugar Free Farm and has contributed to I Quit Sugar with Sarah Wilson and several other publications.

Walking in the Rain

Mindfulness in nature

dept. store for the mind

For anyone seeking fresh air and ideas.

Getting lost and feeling found...

'I only went out for a walk and finally concluded to stay out till sundown, for going out, I found, was really going in.' – John Muir, John of the Mountains

Walking is medicine for the mind. It helps us slow down and think things through. It also helps us perk up and generate new ideas. There are few activities as readily available and revitalising as a brisk walk, or as soothing and stimulating as a long walk. Discover the wonderful things that can happen when you set out on two feet.

Studies show a strong link between the mental state while walking and innovative ideas or strokes of insight. From Aristotle's strolls with his students to Steve Jobs's famous walking meetings, walking not only inspires creativity but also attention, presence and perspective. Taking your mind for a walk nourishes connection with yourself, it allows exploration of the self and the world around us and invigorates all of our senses.

Washing Up is Good for You

Mindfulness at home

dept. store for the mind

Washing the dishes really can be good for you, if you do it mindfully.

When you let yourself focus on any activity, however mundane, when you feel the warm water running over your hands and each dish as you make it clean, your mind begins to settle and stress levels come down. You are in the moment. Everything is as it should be. In the morning when you make your bed, you set the tone for the day. In the evening as you chop vegetables you create a rhythm. And as you clear clutter from the surfaces of your home, so you create space in your mind. When we open ourselves up to seeing it, suddenly there is beauty everywhere in our daily lives.

One of the Fives Ways to Wellbeing identified by the New Economics Foundation, and utilised by the major mental health charity Mind, is simply 'taking notice'. Reminding ourselves to take notice broadens our awareness of ourselves and our surroundings. And studies have shown that being aware of what is taking place in the present directly enhances our sense of wellness.

The Chakra Project

The healing power of flow to transform your life

Georgia Coleridge

Love your chakras to transform your life.

Chakras are energy centres in the body, usually depicted as spirals or circles of light. We've got hundreds of them all over our body, including the palms of our hands and the soles of our feet, but we're going to concentrate on the seven major ones. Each chakra is associated with a different colour, element, emotion, animal and much more. For example, the heart chakra is green and, as you might guess, attributed to love and compassion. When your chakras are out of balance or the flow is blocked we may suffer from particular symptoms or health issues, which we can address through particular foods, meditations and lifestyle tips. The Chakra Project will inspire you to get to know each of your chakras better and teach you to clean, balance and strengthen each one.

Georgia Coleridge is a professional healer with a busy practice. She has a lot of practical experience with chakras, both her own and clients'. She is married to Nicolas Coleridge and when she isn't healing and teaching she's usually reading about it.

PERFECT SUPPLEMENT TO THE GROWING RANGE OF CHAKRA PRODUCTS IN THE SPECIAL SALES AND COSMETIC DEPARTMENTS

Five Minutes in the Morning

A focus journal

A simple tool to help you focus on what's important and then go ahead and do it.

What's important to you today?

Not many of us have lives in which we can wake up at 5am, go for a run, meditate for an hour and make avocado on toast all before 8am. But all of us can give ourselves just five minutes to water the seeds of our intentions, reflect on how we are and decide what's really important for us, today.

All it takes is five minutes in the morning.

Writing things down has been shown to help people more successfully achieve their goals. Five Minutes in the Morning presents a way to help you focus on what matters, prioritise what you are going to do for the day ahead and track your progress. This beautifully designed and practical journal includes bite-size exercises for focus, productivity, habits, prioritising, calming the mind, visualisation meditations and more.

The Self-Care Revolution

How to nurture your body and heal your mind

Suzy Reading

Essential ways to stress-proof your body and mind.

Self-care is the future of preventative medicine – daily nourishment that gives us a fighting chance to minimize illness, fatigue, depression and anxiety. Central to the idea of self-care is the idea that taking care of yourself is not selfish and offers essential ways to stress-proof your body and mind, bringing us back from the brink of energetic bankruptcy.

Based on the latest scientific research into the mind/body connection, psychologist, yoga teacher and personal trainer Suzy Reading has developed a 'vitality wheel' that offers a complete head, heart and body self-care toolkit that readers can select from according to their needs. Included are 8 evidence-based ways to boost your happiness, energy, resilience and resourcefulness.

Each section includes power poses from yoga that enhance and build on the practical advice.

Suzy Reading is a chartered psychologist (B. Psych (Hons), M.Psych (Org)) and qualified yoga teacher specialising in wellbeing.

RHS Genealogy for Gardeners

Plant families explored and explained

Simon Maughan & Dr Ross Bayton

A unique guide to the fascinating genealogical relationships between plant families.

Gardening experts Simon Maughan and Ross Bayton are here to guide you through plant genealogy, to help you understand more than a quarter of a million species. Using this knowledge, we can begin to see similarities and characteristics between plants, and make sense of the huge biological diversity of the plant kingdom.

The book is divided into three sections – Non-Flowering Plants, Dicots, and Monocots – to provide detailed information on 100 of the ‘core’ plant families while ‘Uses for’ boxes provide practical gardening tips. With beautiful botanical watercolours and practical diagrams, this is the perfect book for gardeners, horticultural students, budding naturalists and amateur botanists.

Simon Maughan

has spent more than 25 years studying and developing a love of practical gardening and plants. He has worked on many dozens of books, covering all aspects of gardening. He has worked as an editor and publisher for the RHS for more than 12 years.

Dr Ross Bayton

gained a Bachelor's degree in tropical ecology, and later a Masters and a PhD, both in taxonomy. He is the co-author of New Trees: Recent Introductions to Cultivation and used to work for BBC Gardeners' World Magazine.

Vogue: The Gown

Jo Ellison

Vogue: The Gown is the ultimate visual sourcebook for all those who love fashion.

Something about a gown's intrinsic construction, unashamed opulence and sheer feminine romance ignites in us the promise of fairy-tale adventure and unparalleled glamour. The magical gowns featured here give full reign to those fantasies, be they the sublime creations of Madame Grés, the heavenly bodies sculpted by Azzedine Alaïa or the seductive lines of a Deco-inspired silhouette.

Jo Ellison has curated a collection of more than 300 images and grouped them into thematic chapters: Classical, Drama, Decorative and Modernist. The book provides both an evocative celebration of almost a century of fashion history while also showcasing the work of the very best photographers including, Tim Walker, Mario Testino, Nick Knight, David Bailey, Herb Ritts and Norman Parkinson.

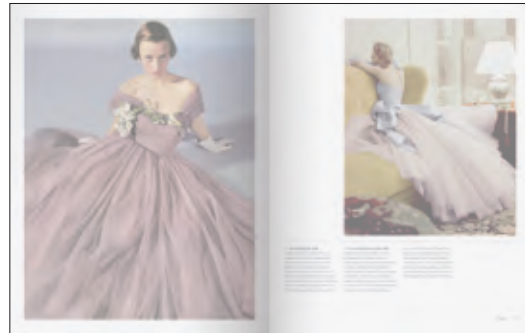

Now available in a new format with a luxurious real cloth cover, at a pocket-friendly price of £30.

Jo Ellison was the features director of Vogue between 2005 and 2014. A former history graduate, she worked extensively in the Vogue archive and has written numerous features about the magazine's illustrious relationships with photographers past and present, from Cecil Beaton to David Bailey and Juergen Teller. She is now the fashion editor at the Financial Times.

The World Atlas of Street Fashion

Caroline Cox

Discover the inspirational world of global street styles and the fascinating stories behind them.

Filled with eye-catching images of 100 styles from around the globe, The World Atlas of Street Fashion is a celebration of those who dare to think differently. From the Chinese skinheads of Beijing to the feminist funkeiras of São Paulo, the raggare of Stockholm to the Junglists of Whistler, this is world street style as you've never seen it before.

Street style exists to turn heads and create comment. The message can be one of resistance, subversion, musical affiliation, or a combination of all three. A group of likeminded individuals can create a powerful sartorial force, moving beyond fashion's mere billboards for the latest brands. Organized geographically by continent, this book examines street style in all its international diversity, by tracing the many and varied ways in which it has developed in different regions of the world. Written by acclaimed fashion historian Caroline Cox, The World Atlas of Street Fashion offers a ground-breaking portrait of world street style.

Orla Kiely

ORLA KIELY IS
YEAR'S
BOOKS ARE MY BAG
BAG, LAUNCHING IN OCTOBER 2017.

A visual treasury and thoughtful guide to using pattern, from print and colour expert, Orla Kiely.

The world of Orla Kiely is one where pattern reigns. Immediately recognisable, her unique design language and sure sense of graphic control has seen her label become a hugely successful global brand. From her early signature bags, the collection has grown to include a complete womenswear line, accessories, travel and homeware, sold in shops and outlets worldwide.

Pattern is Orla's opportunity to provide her many devoted followers around the world with an insight into her creative process. Giving a personal account of what informs her work and inspires her designs, she looks at pattern in all its manifestations – the impact of scale and proportion, rhythm and texture and the all-important dimension of colour. With her prints applied to a wide range of products, from bags and clothing to decorative objects and soft furnishings, she is in a unique position to comment on all the ways in which pattern can enrich our lives.

Illustrated with many examples of Orla's work and inspirational images that have shaped her style, the result is a stunning guide to using pattern with flair and confidence.

Orla Kiely

is the visionary and founder of a global brand. An expert on print and colour, she has created a world that is renowned for its individual voice and unique perspective on both fashion and homeware. Her flagship store in London's Covent Garden is the epicentre of a global business that has won four prestigious UK Fashion Export Awards. Her work is presented at London Fashion Week, and extends into luggage, stationery, gardening and homeware. The Orla Kiely design studio has collaborated with leading brands such as Heal's, Clarks, Apple and Uniqlo.

SLIPCASE.

The only book on the subject that will enable you to identify confidently and reliably an unknown piece of silver from any country around the world.

Designed as the essential reference tool for appraisers, collectors and dealers of silverware, this is the indispensable guide for anyone researching silver hallmarks, offering clear and wide-ranging reproductions of thousands of hallmarks from more than 60 countries and regions, past and present, on every continent. It is also clearly and logically organized into two volumes for ease of reference: in the first volume are hallmarks listed by visual type and category, fully cross-referenced to information in the second volume on country of origin (in order of importance), centre of assaying or making, date and silver standard marks, special marks such as import/export marks, and selected maker's marks.

Vetted by an international team of experts, the Encyclopedia thus helps you to identify silver hallmarks quickly, easily and reliably. It also includes brief historical overviews of hallmarking in each country, a description of the hallmarking process, and a guide to identifying fake and forged marks.

Practical, comprehensive and up to date, Miller's Encyclopedia of World Silver Marks is an invaluable aid to identifying silverware from around the world.

Judith Miller

is one of the world's leading experts in the field of antiques. In 1979 she co-founded the international bestseller Miller's Antiques Price Guide and has since written more than 100 books which are held in high regard by collectors and dealers. She is an expert on the BBC's 'Antiques Roadshow'.

The Greatest LEGO® Builds of All Time

Nathan Sawaya

Following on from the hugely successful Brick City, Brick Wonders, Brick Flicks and Brick Wheels, this large-format book is dedicated to showcasing the most impressive models ever created in Lego®.

Bringing together an inspiring collection of iconic models, The Greatest LEGO Builds of All Time celebrates the art of LEGO across a variety of themes – from super structures to entire towns – taking a fresh look at past favourites such as the Empire State Building, the Leaning Tower of Pisa and the A380 Airbus, as well as featuring the latest brand-new ‘super builds’ by creators from around the world.

As ever, the LEGO models created by these master builders are skilfully designed and carefully constructed using only LEGO pieces. Readers of all ages will enjoy poring over the amazing dioramas with their fantastic attention to detail and wonderfully humorous touches. Packed with great artwork and quirky trivia, this book is a celebration of the humble LEGO brick, not to mention the extraordinary amount of imagination, dedication and skill that lies behind each awe-inspiring build.

Nathan Sawaya

is the first contemporary artist ever to take LEGO into the art world as a medium. Painstakingly crafted, Nathan's work is both beautiful and playful, and elevates this ordinary toy to the status of fine art. His unique sculptures and renowned touring international exhibition, THE ART OF THE BRICK, inspire creativity and break attendance records globally. Nathan is the recipient of numerous awards and honours, and in 2014 founded The Art Revolution Foundation, for the purpose of making art a priority in our schools and homes. He has spoken at Google, Zeitgeist, TEDx and Yahoo!

Mini Weapons of Mass Destruction

Make mayhem with your stationery with 35 models to build yourself

John Austin

US
BESTSELLER:
OVER
569,000
COPIES SOLD!

Troublemakers of all stripes discover the components and directions needed to build an impressive, if somewhat miniaturised, arsenal.

We've come a long way from the Peashooter Era: with the advent of modern household products and office supplies – binder clips, clothespins, rubber bands, ballpoint pens, toothpicks, paper clips and plastic utensils – the everyday junk drawer can hold all the materials needed to create pocket-sized weaponry.

Toy designer John Austin provides detailed, step-by-step instructions for each project, including materials and ammo lists, clear diagrams, and construction tips, for mayhem-loving MacGyvers. The 35 devices include catapults, slingshots, minibombs, darts, and combustion shooters. Build a tiny trebuchet from paper clips and a D-cell battery. Wrap a penny in a string of paper caps to create a surprisingly impressive “bomb.” Several of the projects even include variations where combatants mount laser pointer sights to their shooters to increase their accuracy.

1001 Drives You Must Experience Before You Die

General Editor: Darryl Sleath

This ultimate guide to road trips is a must for every motor enthusiast.

From Cheddar Gorge in the UK to the Lost World Highway in New Zealand, this is a compilation of the most unforgettable and extraordinary journeys our planet has to offer.

Divided into themed chapters (Scenic, Adventure, and Historical & Cultural), this book strives to inspire readers to strike out on their own adventures, while also being the perfect read for the armchair traveller. Scenic routes include trips along Hadrian's Wall or along the Amalfi Coast, while Adventure routes take you down the 'Road of Death' in Bolivia and the Tianmen Mountain Road in China. Historical & Cultural drives follow routes of literary, historical or artistic significance, for instance Che Guevara's route through South America, or retracing Bonnie and Clyde's final drive. Each trip is supported with digital mapping and is illustrated by evocative full-colour images.

Particle Physics Brick by Brick

Atomic and subatomic physics explained in LEGO®

Dr Ben Still

A unique and fascinating exploration of the building blocks that make up our universe, using LEGO® to demonstrate and elucidate.

All matter comprises of twelve 'building block' particles. This book explains how these building blocks are formed and interact, using toy building blocks to create a uniquely visual and clear depiction of the way our universe is put together. This is the perfect introduction to the enigmatic and fascinating world of Quantum Physics.

Our story starts with the Big Bang, and along the way, the constructs and interactions within and among atoms and sub-atomic particles, and the forces that play upon them, are clearly explained, with each LEGO® block representing a different atomic or sub-atomic particle. The different colours and size denote what that particle is and its relationship with the other 'building blocks'.

Each chapter is presented in digestible chunks, using toy building blocks to illustrate the ideas and experiments that have led to some of the biggest discoveries of the past 150 years.

Soon you'll be able to construct every element in the Universe using a box of LEGO® and this book!

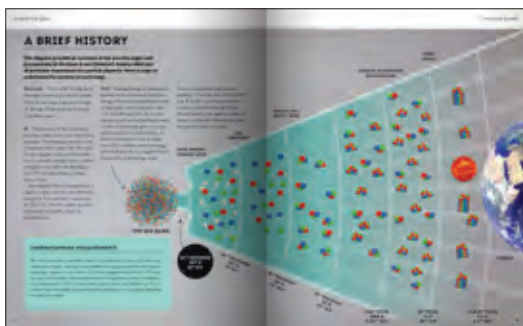

Dr Ben Still

is a Physicist at the University of London. Alongside his research career, Ben has been an advocate of new methods of communicating physics. He has worked with artists, designers, and illustrators to show complex physics research topics in a new light. Ben also teaches science in schools and develops innovative methods of classroom teaching. He is the author of Brains Explains: Quantum Physics and The Secret Life of the Periodic Table.

GOAL!

'I scored in a World Cup final'

Michael Donald

Award-winning sports photographer Michael Donald has spent six years tracking down the 34 living members of an exclusive club: the only people to have scored in a World Cup Final.

From Uruguayan Alcides Ghiggia in 1950 through to Mario Götze in 2016, this is a fascinating portrait of the men who have lived the dream of every football fan worldwide. Michael's intimate portraits are accompanied by an interview with the player that not only relives the moment, but gives fascinating insight into the occasion, from the music they played on the bus to the stadium, to the meal they ate afterwards.

The book includes the story of what happened in each World Cup, what happened to the players afterwards and what they do today. There's also a comprehensive statistics section covering all the facts and figures for each World Cup tournament so readers can relive the matches they saw, and discover the details about the ones they didn't.

Beautifully illustrated, with fascinating text and the official backing of FIFA, Goal! is a unique football book that captures the essence of the ultimate sporting achievement.

Michael Donald

is an award-winning photographer and filmmaker. He shoots commissions for The Sunday Times, The Telegraph, The Observer and The Guardian, and his work has been published the world over. The Maths Behind...

Discover the mathematics of everyday events

Colin Beveridge

Taking moments from everyday life and looking at the maths and science behind why they happen, this book examines everything from how to measure the speed of a tennis serve, to the maths behind spam emails.

Have you ever wondered why traffic jams often turn out to have no cause when you get to the end of the queue? There's a mathematical explanation for that. Or ever considered whether some lotteries might be easier to win than others? There's a formula for that too. If you've ever been curious about the mathematical strings that hold our world together, then look no further than The Maths Behind.

This intriguing and illuminating book takes a scientific view of your everyday world, and can give you the answers to all the niggling questions in your life, along with many you never even thought to ask. From the science behind artificial intelligence, to the maths behind how to consistently win at Monopoly (and become very unpopular with your family), this is a fascinating look at the mathematical forces that run beneath our everyday transactions.

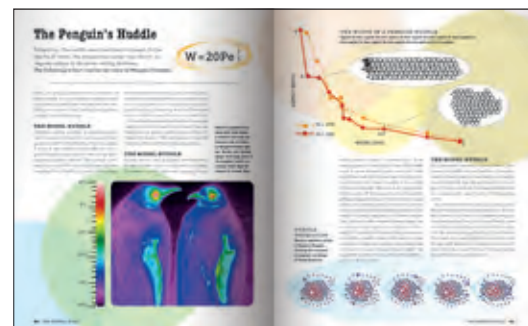

Colin Beveridge

can't understand why maths isn't the most popular subject on the planet, and spends his life trying to make it so. After a PhD from St Andrews, he worked on NASA's Living With A Star program before returning to the UK in 2008. When he's not writing, teaching, or speaking about maths, he's looking after his young sons or running on south Dorset's excellent cycle path network.

This Day in Rap and Hip Hop History

Chuck D

A comprehensive illustrated history of rap and hip hop from one of the most influential hip hop artists of all time, Chuck D.

In the nearly 40 years since the days of DJ Kool Here and 'Rapper's Delight', rap and hip hop have become a billion-dollar worldwide phenomenon, yet there has been no definitive history of the genre.

This Day in Rap and Hip Hop History by Chuck D remedies the oversight. It is a comprehensive, chronological, illustrated overview of rap and hip hop from 1979 to the present, as told by one of the most influential rappers in the world.

This massive compendium details the most iconic and influential songs in rap history, along with biographies of all the important performers, from Kurtis Blow to Kendrick Lamar, with Chuck's insider perspective on the music as he lived it.

Illustrating the book are nearly 200 portraits of featured performers, by the talented artists of mADurgency, Chuck's art and design company.

Chuck D

is one of the most significant lyricists in contemporary music. Both as a solo artist and as the leader of the ground-breaking hip hop group Public Enemy (which was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2013), he has helped pave the way for political, social, and culturally conscious hip hop.

NEW AND ORIGINAL IDEA FROM BESTSELLING CREATIVE, THOMAS PAVITTE

Spiroglyphics!

Rock heroes

Thomas Pavitte

Colour and reveal your musical heroes in these 20 mind-bending puzzles.

Spiroglyphics are a totally original idea from the twisted mind of genius puzzle-designer Thomas Pavitte!

Thomas's unique talent is creating activity puzzles that result in something truly extraordinary. His 1000 Dot-to-Dot books and Querks colouring books have become international best-sellers, enjoyed by creative puzzle fans the world over, with millions of copies in print.

Spiroglyphics are even more incredible than anything he has done before. Each oversized design starts life as a featureless spiral, but as you fill in the lines you find yourself creating a surprising, eye-popping portrait of a rock icon. Fun to create and amazing to look at, the Spiroglyphics will blow your mind, and make amazing artworks for your wall!

Thomas Pavitte

When graphic designer Thomas Pavitte found himself between jobs, he started doodling to keep his creative juices flowing, experimenting with the dot-to-dot puzzles he remembered from his childhood. The result was a 6,239-dot reconstruction of the Mona Lisa, which then led to the 1000 Dot-to-Dot Book and its sequels. Constantly exploring new graphic ideas, Thomas lives in Melbourne, Australia, and shares his work at thomasmakesstuff.com.

Wallace and Gromit Querkles

Thomas Pavitte

INCLUDES STARS OF A CLOSE SHAVE, THE WRONG TROUSERS, THE CURSE OF THE WERE-RABBIT, AND MANY MORE

Colour or shade the mysterious Querkles to reveal 20 Aardman animation stars.

Thomas Pavitte's amazing Querkles are an exciting twist on the classic colour-by-number images that we loved as children, and have sold hundreds of thousands of copies worldwide. At first, you see nothing but a baffling tangle of circles, but hidden within each puzzle is an amazing picture, waiting to be revealed!

Featuring the beloved characters of Aardman's Wallace & Gromit movies, this book provides hours of creative colouring fun for fans of all ages. Along with several portraits of our cheese-eating inventors you will discover a collection of curious characters from the films including Feathers the Penguin, the moon robot and Shaun the Sheep. Choose your own colour scheme or use the suggested palette for your Querkle, discover what's hidden in each puzzle, and create a striking portrait that you can easily remove and display.

EVERY ONE OF THE AARDMAN WALLACE & GROMIT MOVIES HAVE WERE OSCAR NOMINATED AND ALL WON BAFTAS!

Love Origami!

20 simple paper projects to fold, style & share

Ross Symons

Learn to create fun, quirky paper projects, with this book from origami expert Ross Symons.

Ross Symons is an origami maverick. Shockingly, he has been known to draw faces on some of his animal creations. And his creativity extends to his witty and imaginative photo styling, as he uploads all his latest creations online. And, as you'll discover from this book, he is also a great teacher.

From swans to butterflies, flowers to sea shells, this book takes beginners straight to the fun origami projects, and promises maximum satisfaction from a minimum of house spent folding. If you have ever had a go at origami, and gave up after the first try at a crane or a waterbomb base, then this book will be a revelation.

Love Origami? Then why not share that love around on social media? Each origami piece in the book has a hashtag link so you can upload your own version to the Love Origami community – and then enjoy viewing a zoo full of paper rhinos from across the globe!

What They Didn't Teach You in Fashion School

Jay Calderin

A career guide for fashion designers, covering everything they need to know about building a successful business after graduating.

How do you navigate the confusing and competitive fashion world after the relative comfort of fashion school? How do you learn to adapt to an industry that constantly evolves and throws new challenges your way? And above all, how do you play to your strengths as a designer, and build a successful career? This book is your survival guide to the fashion industry. This is the fourth in a popular series to teach graduates starting out in their career how to launch themselves successfully in the real world. It is equally ideal for anyone needing a refresher or a little inspiration in their career. Providing expert advice, and lots of inspiration, Jay Calderin shows you how to get the best out of the exhilarating world of fashion.

Jay Calderin
The LA Times called his first book, “a new fashion bible for designers, aspirers and the just plain curious...”
The Founder and Executive Director of Boston Fashion Week, Jay also served as Creative Director of the first Chengdu Fashion Week. His fashion design work has graced the pages of Vogue and Elle magazines. As an instructor and Director of Creative Marketing at the School of Fashion Design, Boston, he also teaches at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston and recently joined the ranks of CreativeLive's highly respected team of online educators.

The Photographer's Handbook

Equipment | Technique | Style

Michael Freeman

Know the equipment, refine your technique and express your style.

- ❖ To take photos you need to get your settings right.
- ❖ To take good photos you need to understand how your camera works.
- ❖ To take great photos, you need to think about what you're shooting.

This book will show you how to master all three.

Divided into three definitive sections; Technology & Hardware, Shooting Skills and Subjects & Style, professional photographer Michael Freeman explores these topics to show you how to be your best photographer. Illustrated with a combination of Freeman's photography and that of some of the most well-known photographers in the history of the art, and presented as a luscious flex-bind with foil cover, this is the ultimate photographer's handbook.

Ultimate Exposure:

All you need to know to take perfect photos with any camera

David Nightingale

Exposure is photography's fundamental concept. Master it, and you'll master photography.

You don't need a book to take good photos any more; most (but not all) of the time your camera, or your phone, will handle things for you. But if you don't know what it's doing - you don't know how to expose photos - you can't join in the real fun of photography.

With this book, though, you'll quickly master the key principles, and grasp a few simple concepts that will open up a world of beautiful sunsets, clever silhouettes, light trails and bokeh

- as well as sophisticated techniques like HDR, manual exposure blending, and focus stacking.

Armed with this knowledge the digital photos you share will stand head-and-shoulders above the rest, and you'll have no problem using that film camera or used Polaroid you picked up at that garage-sale.

Beginner's Guide to Photography:

Capturing the moment every time, whatever camera you have

Haj Jan Kamps

Forget about confusing jargon and technicalities: just take great photos, whatever your camera.

Photography is a big part of our lives, and we all take photos all the time. By understanding just a few basics of how your camera - or your phone - works, you'll find yourself able to take more exciting, stand-out photos.

Within a few pages you'll be able to speak with confidence to photographers about exposure settings, decide what lighting or lenses will lift a scene, or what tactics you can use to make your subject look more interesting.

The book also covers the basics of managing, editing & sharing your collection of digital images so you're not at the mercy of the software that was bundled with your phone.

One photographer's passion project – a stunning collection of unique, enchanting images of a snowy New York that everyone can cherish.

The iconic city of New York is a bustling, heady metropolis that, thanks to the power of media, everyone in the world knows intimately, even if they've never been. But every once in a while it changes completely. At first a few flakes will fall, then more, and more. Hardened New Yorkers rush for warmth and, while they're absent, an amazing, glistening almost deserted winter wonderland momentarily appears.

It is these moments that phenomenally popular photo-blogger Vivienne Gucwa lives for, detailing her experience of taking these images throughout the book. She has been documenting them for more than a decade, rushing out to capture the city in snow. Of all the photos that have made her the celebrated, award-winning success that she is, it is these that are most loved, both online and in print, so we offer them here in a sumptuous volume to be enjoyed by anyone who loves New York, whether from afar, as an occasional visitor, or if you've never left the Big Apple.

Vivienne Gucwa

a native of Queens, began shooting New York City in the early 2000s with no formal training and just a simple point-and-shoot camera. It was not until 2010 that she began publishing the resulting photographs on her blog. Now she shoots assignments around the world – millions follow her work and as a result she has won acclaim across the industry and the media alike. Most recently she has been named Sony's 9th Artisan of Imagery.

The World Atlas of Wine

Hugh Johnson & Jancis Robinson

This 7th Edition confirms the status of The World Atlas of Wine as the most essential and authoritative wine reference work available. Reflecting the changing nature of the wine scene, The World Atlas of Wine takes into account changes in climate, techniques, fashion and new regulations over the last six years. A fresh new design, a bold new 'infographic' illustration style and stunning new images make the visual appeal of the atlas as strong as its expert, accessible text.
