WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT OUR BESTSELLERS

"I expect to sell 3,000 of the books in their first year. I have resisted heraldry and surname products before but these informative gift books are well crafted and good value. They also offer a very good profit for the space they occupy."
Chris Needham,
General Manager,
Canterbury Cathedral Shop.

"This was our great new line. Shop area is limited and we had to think carefully about giving space over to a spinner for the books and magnets. But we were not disappointed. Sales outstripped all our expectations. We are absolutely delighted with the high sell through of these products."
Stuart Richardson, Manager,
Alnwick Castle Gift Shop.

"We have sold the books for many years and they are always in our top 10 of all product sales, they are informative and entertaining and make an excellent gift."
Joanna Hooper,
Retail Buying Manager,
Glasgow Museums.

"The books have sold extremely well and have made an excellent addition to our offer. Lang Syne developed a stand that complemented and was sympathetic with the new shop fitting and lay-out and their team merchandise on a regular basis".
Vanessa Ward,
Business Support Manager,
Durham Cathedral.
